Sunday Supper brings Cream Tomato Waffles

served with bacon strips

by Dorothy Greig

MOTHER used to say, "Sunday supper is the perfect meal at which to show off your special trick dishes." I thought of that the other day when mixing these waffles.

Made with tomato soup they had lovely flavor and a faintly rosy color, too, that was most appetizing. Then as a final touch I topped them with crisp bacon — and the family loved them. Maybe yours will, too:

1½ cups flour (pastry)
¼ teaspoon soda
1½ teaspoons baking powder
Pinch of salt
½ cup milk
½ cup condensed tomato soup (just as it comes from the can)
2 eggs, separated
3 tablespoons melted shortening

Sift the flour, measure. Then add soda, baking powder and salt and sift again. Combine the egg yolks, milk and tomato soup and mix with the dry ingredients. Beat the egg whites until stiff. Fold them into the mixture then add the melted shortening. This makes 3 to 4 large waffles. Serve with crisp bacon strips.

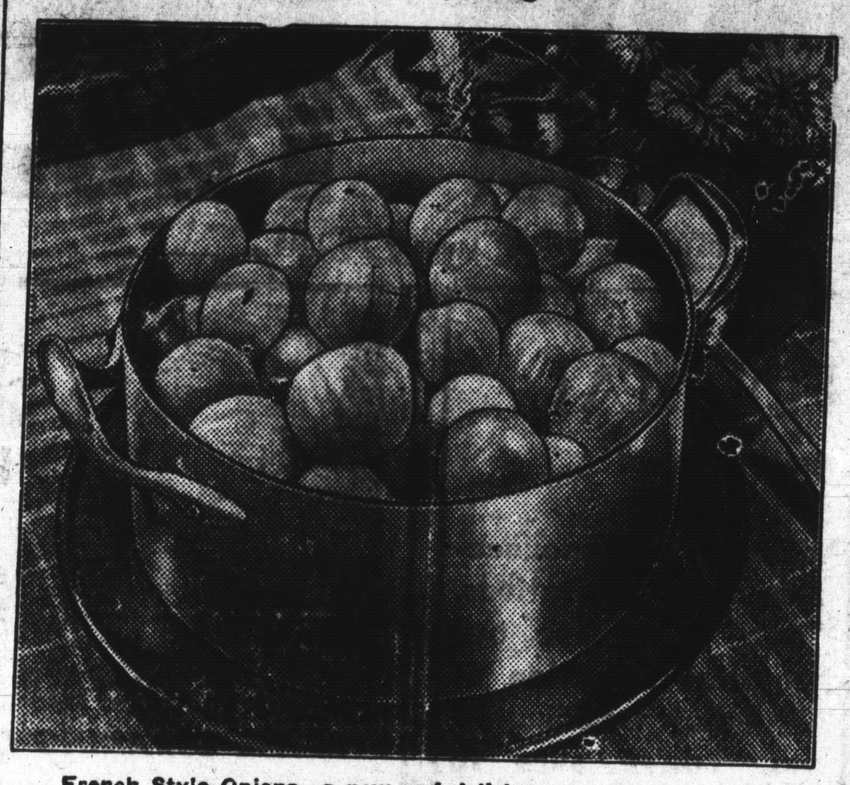
VEGETABLES . . . as you like 'em

by Dorothy Greig



French Style Onions—a new and delicious way to serve this every day vegetable.

IN old B. V. (Before Vitamins) days we did weird things to vegetables—such as soaking before cooking, boiling long and hard in deep water, peeling skins in thick ribbons. After all that drubbing the poor vegetables arrived on the table looking dejected—and tasting that way, too.

Now we know better. We bake and boil vegetables in their skins where possible. We're stingy with water, very stingy. We keep them tightly covered and never stir them. We cook them quickly, eat immediately. And have discovered that vegetables treated thus not only are better for us—but have lovely fresh flavor. They're fun to eat!

Having mastered the new technique we can go on from there to add a few flourishes. For instance, the humble little onion fixed this way has new zest and spirit.

French Style Onions

5 cups small silver-skinned onions
1 can condensed consomme
Pinch of pepper
3 tablespoons grated cheese (sharp)

Heat the consomme to boiling, add onions and cook until tender, about 40 minutes. Then add pepper and grated cheese just before serving. Serves 5.

And celery—it's another prosaic every day vegetable—but in this cream tomato sauce you'd never guess it:

Celery in Tomato Sauce

4 cups celery, cut in pieces about 1 inch long and ⅛ inch wide

Cook the celery in water until tender. Then drain.

Tomato Cream Sauce:

1 can condensed tomato soup
2 tablespoons cream (heavy)

Add the cream to the tomato soup and heat. Pour sauce over the cooked celery. Season, if necessary. Serves 6.

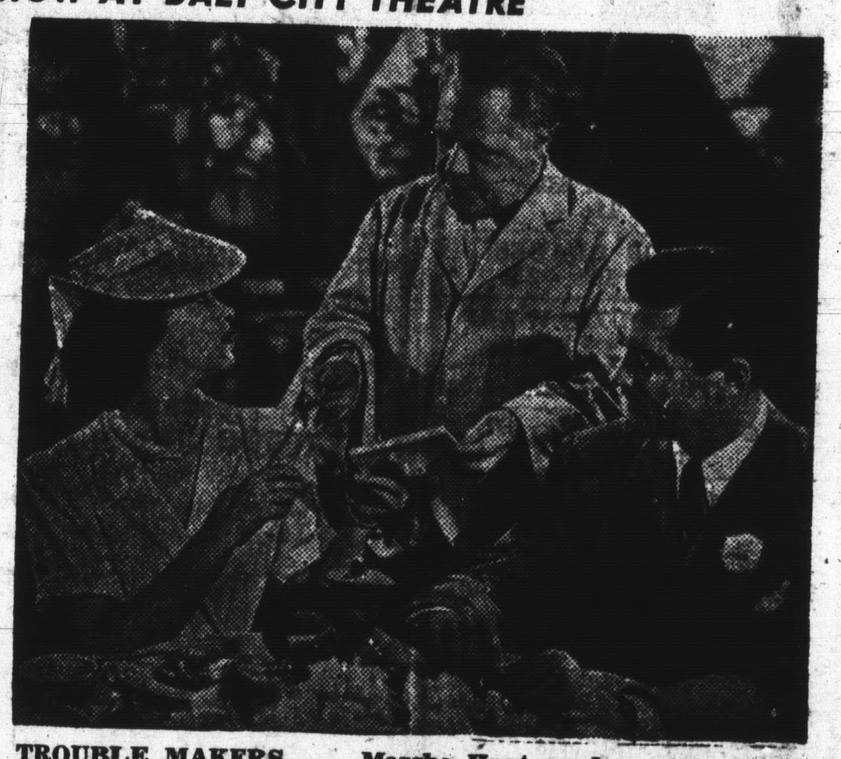
NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE



TROUBLE MAKERS . . . Marsha Hunt sends a message which will lead Red Skelton, Ben Blue and Rags Ragland on a merry chase after saboteurs, in this scene from M-G-M's "Panama Hattie," now playing at the Daly City theatre. Carl Esmond looks on as Joe Yule takes the slip of paper. Red Skelton and Ann Sothern are co-starred in the musical.

To the suds with Woolens

Each day we homemakers seem to take on added work at home. Many who have never tackled the task of washing woolens at home, are finding themselves confronted with this problem.

IS IT 100% WOOL?

100% wool fabrics and clothes are so labeled. This is more or less of a warning because there are so many synthetic wool fabrics that do not lend themselves to washing. But if it is all wool or wool and cotton, then you're safe to tackle the job yourself.

CHOOSE SOAP CAREFULLY

Choose a reputable granulated soap which dissolves quickly in lukewarm water. Be sure the water is only LUKE warm. This is important. If you're not sure of the temperature, test it with your elbow. It is more sensitive to heat than your hand. It should feel just tepid.

MEASURE THE ARTICLE

Before dousing the article to be washed into the suds, measure it. If it is a sweater, baby clothes or something of that sort, it is well to cut out a paper pattern as a guide for size. Measure blankets and large articles.

ACTUAL WASHING

Squeeze, NEVER RUB, woolen garments in the suds. If the article doesn't come clean in one suds, then squeeze it through a second suds of the same temperature. When clean, squeeze out the water, and rinse in water the same temperature as the washing water.

Rinse twice or until water runs clear of soap. NEVER WRING, but squeeze out excess water.

SHAPING OR HANGING

Sweaters, baby clothes and the like should be pulled back to their original shape. If a pattern is made, lay it on the pattern and pin it in shape. Lay on several thicknesses of bath towel to dry and dry it in the shade, not in the sun.

For blankets and large articles, hang them on the line, being sure they are straight and not pulled askew at the corners. The shade is best for these, too. And a windy day is ideal for washing heavy things like blankets.

If you can't get that —try this

Even though our food dealers' shelves are likely to take on the appearance of Old Mother Habbard's cupboard during this wartime period, it is still up to the homemaker to keep the family fare in balance with sufficient vitamins, minerals, and other body-building indispensables.

It may mean changing your food habits, but you CAN keep your family well fed in face of limited selections.

FOR YOUR DAILY QUOTA OF VITAMIN A

. . Look to your dairy products, eggs, sundry meats such as liver, heart and kidney, oily fish, leafy green and yellow vegetables. If one "A" food is not available, then turn to another.

GET YOUR VITAMIN B

From whole grain cereals, enriched flour and bread, milk, eggs, liver, kidney, fruits, and vegetables. Think of these when lean meats are not available.

YOU'LL FIND VITAMIN C

. . In oranges, lemons, grapefruit, tomatoes and berries. Leafy raw vegetables, especially cabbage, can be called upon for "C" should there be need.

MINERALS ARE NECESSARY

You won't have to go mining for these minerals. But they should be given careful consideration in the menu.

Calcium—Of course dairy products, especially milk and cheese, are the best source, but the pinch hitters are molasses, carrots, cabbage, broccoli, and dried figs.

Iron—Liver, heart and kidney are about the best sources of this all important mineral. But too, there's whole grain cereals, enriched flour and breads, lean meats, egg yolks and leafy green vegetables.

PROTEIN AND ENERGY FOODS

Proteins—These are the sustaining foods around which our menus are usually built. Meat, of course, is most universally favored. But when the family quota is exhausted, then think of the menu in terms of cheese, eggs, dried beans and nuts. They do a similar job as meat, and you'll find some of them available.

Energy Foods—Somehow or other, we seem to get our share of these, so there's no need for worry here. Bread, desserts, potatoes, in other words, starches and sweets, are seldom neglected on any menu.

WE'VE PLENTY TO EAT

There are plenty of nourishing, appetizing foods to be had. It is a matter of manipulating the menu to include all the nutritional necessities. Julia Lee Wright's Family Circle articles are designed to help you adjust your cookery to a wartime basis. You'll benefit by watching for them weekly, and clipping them for future reference.

A new series in new dress has just been started. Get your copy of THE FAMILY CIRCLE MAGAZINE Tuesday and start your series from the beginning.

ALBERT H. BOYNTON ——————— Editor and Publisher

"Father never showed any interest in my girls until I brought home this war worker."

MORE OPPORTUNITY

Opportunity for women to become officers in the Women's Army Auxiliary corps is far greater now than when the initial WAAC Officer's Candidate school was started.

Reason for this is that new increased facilities have made possible the training of large numbers. Many of the original rejections were due to limitations of facilities which allowed the selection of a very small percent of those actually desired.

Records of all applicants rejected for the first Officer Candidate School will now be re-examined.

All enrollees will be eligible for training as Officer Candidates, following their four weeks' basic training, provided they meet the necessary qualifications.

The WAAC's need thousands of officers as well as auxiliaries. Opportunity for advancement is great. Visit or write to your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting station. In San Francisco it's 444 Market street; telephone number is YUkon 1935.

That New Baby Is Really SOMEBODY

ON the battle front or on the home front, Meat is fighting food. Its strength-giving and satisfying qualities have made meat the center of the day's meals in 30 million American homes.

More than that, it's one of nature's most nutritious foods. On the basis of average servings, meat is a richer source of more dietary essentials than any other single food. Regardless of sex, age, or occupation, we all need meat—rich in vitamins, minerals, protein, and energy.

Let our market serve you with select, quality meat. Make our market your health center.

SAVE FATS

America needs your waste fats. One pound of fat furnishes enough glycerin to fire four anti-aircraft shells. Bring your fats to us!
